

Response to Request for Information

Reference      FOI 001985
Date            26 February 2018

Emergency Services - Staff

Request:

To ask under the FOIA

1. Whether your local authority offers special leave / public duty leave for council staff to fulfil public duties relating to the emergency services. Such duties include: retained fire fighters, special constables, on call NHS / Community responders, search and rescue workers, the RNLI and any other emergency services workers. it does not include jury service or armed forces, or sitting on a health authority board / committee?
Leave for public duties does not include duties relating to the emergency services. In addition to leave for jury service and for service in non-regular Forces, the Council's public duties leave provision refers to and covers:
  - A magistrate
  - A member of another Local Authority
  - A member of a committee of a Local Authority
  - A member of a public body/Whitley Council
  - A member of the national executive of a trade union
  - A delegate to a national conference of a trade union
  - A member of the managing or governing body of an educational establishment maintained by a Local Education Authority
  - A member of a statutory tribunal
  - A member of a Strategic Health Authority.
2. If the local authority offers such special leave for the emergency services, is it paid or unpaid? If it is paid, how many days / hours are offered per calendar year?
Leave for public duties relating to the emergency services is not offered.
3. If the local authority pays staff to take such leave, for a copy of this policy. And the number of staff who have taken the leave between 1 January 2017 and 31 December 2017 (broken down by 'emergency service' in part one?)
Leave for public duties relating to the emergency services is not offered.
4. If the local authority does not offer such special leave, whether there are plans to introduce such a policy?
There are no immediate plans to introduce this type of leave. The Council's leave policy was last reviewed in July 2017. The next review is scheduled for

[NOT PROTECTIVELY MARKED]

July 2020.

Note: The following link may be useful: <https://www.gov.uk/time-off-work-public-duties>