

Celebrating National Breastfeeding Week 2019

The City of Wolverhampton Council and Wolverhampton's Infant Feeding Team invite you to join our event to celebrate National Breastfeeding Week. Bring along your family to meet other mums and mums-to-be to share experiences and learn new things, with some tea & cake and fun activities for your baby or toddler too. You can find out about local services and organisations for families, and take part in baby massage, storytelling and nursery rhyme activities, free mini beauty treatments for mothers and more. The Health Visiting and Infant feeding teams are attending too, for a really family-friendly, fun and informative event aimed at pregnant women, new parents and families with young children. Light refreshments will be available.

Friday 21st June 2019, 10am-12pm

Low Hill Strengthening Families Hub,
26-28 Fourth Avenue, Low Hill, Wolverhampton, WV10 9LZ
