Response to Request for Information

Corona Virus

I can confirm that the information requested is held by Wolverhampton Council. I have detailed below in blue the information that is being released to you.

Request

- 1) Do all the following have a system for asking people to leave when they are obviously ill and risking the health of others (eg by coughing, sneezing)

Public libraries, offices, job-centres, schools, sports centres etc

City of Wolverhampton Council do not have a policy for asking employees to leave work if they have minor illnesses.

- 2) How have these been updated now there is a potential epidemic happening?
With regard to employees the City of Wolverhampton Council is following the guidelines provided by the government and the NHS regarding those that should refrain from attended work and self-isolate.

Please quote the reference number 1422425 in any future communications.
