Serious Case Reviews

Request:

Please could you provide us with a copy of any Serious Case Reviews which have a publication date of September 2013 or later, where either the child or the mother of the child has been killed.

Response:

With reference to your above question, I can confirm that we hold this information. The information is exempt under Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), because the information is accessible to you by other means, as it is already in the public domain. Copies of all serious case reviews published since 2013 can be found on the Wolverhampton Safeguarding Children Board Website: www.wolvesscb.org.uk.
