Troubled Families Programme

Request:

Please find my Freedom of Information Request below:

1. How many families have been identified as a 'troubled family' as defined by the Troubled Families Programme more than once in the past three years. This might result in that family re-entering the Troubled Families Programme.
2. Of those families who have been identified more than once, how many were re-identified as a result of the expansion of the identification criteria in the Expanded Troubled Families Programme (i.e. they would not have been eligible to be identified again under the old criteria).
