
- Section CD1: Introduction
- Section CD2: List of organisations Leicestershire consulted
- Section CD3: Summary of issues and responses

Section CD1: Introduction

1.1 In November 2003, Leicestershire County Council began a six week consultation on the draft of the new HTD document.

1.2 They consulted a wide range of private and public organisations as listed in section CD2.

1.3 The results of the consultation exercise, as summarised in CD3, have helped to shape the published version of HTD, upon which Wolverhampton’s guidance is based.

Section CD2: List of organisations Leicestershire consulted

Leicestershire County Council
- Colleagues in the department of Highways, Transportation and Waste Management, plus colleagues in other departments involved with development, including planning.

District Councils
- All district councils

Adjoining Authorities
- Leicester City Council
- Rutland County Council District Council

Leicestershire Constabulary
- The traffic Management Division and architectural liaison officer

Disability Groups
- Age Concern Leicestershire
- Centre for Deaf People (Leicester)
- Leicestershire Action for Mental Health
- Leicestershire Disabled Living Centre
- Leicestershire Guild of the Disabled
- Mencap (Leicester)
- Royal Leicestershire Rutland and Wycliffe Society for the Blind.

Developers, Consultants and Architects

Services

Others
- British Horse Society
- British Motorcyclists Federation
- Cyclists Touring Club (Leicestershire and Rutland)
- Environment Agency (various offices)
Section CD3: Summary of issues and Responses

1.4 All comments and suggestions from consultees were taken on board and appropriate changes made during the editing process of the final document. For a full list of consultee issues and responses see http://www.leics.gov.uk/index/highways/transport_plans_policies/htd_intro.htm